G. Final competition rules

1. The storytelling time for each contestant/team is limited to 2.5 to 3 minutes. Storytelling timing - from the first person to speak to the last person to finish speaking. At 2.5 minutes, the bell rings once, and at 3 minutes, the bell rings for the 2nd time. Ring the bell at 2.5 minutes as a reminder, please end the storytelling at 3 minutes. If the time is exceeded, points will be deducted, with a total of 1 point deducted for every 30 seconds, and the overtime part of less than 30 seconds will be counted as 30 seconds. If the time is less than 2.5 minutes, 1 point will be deducted. The timing starts when the voice starts, including the greeting at the beginning and the thank you words at the end or stepping down while humming.
2. In order to avoid obscuring the meaning of the readers' theater, the use of stage backgrounds, soundtracks, musical instruments, and costumes or makeup is prohibited during the competition. Offenders will be deducted an average of 1 point for each item.
3. Music stands are available, and contestants must bring their scripts to the stage.
4. The results of the competition will be announced on the school website after the competition on that day, and the awards will be held on November 7th.
